A FIGHT OVER M'KINLEY. The resolutions were adopted amid the wildest kind of Republican enthusiasm. The convention was nearly precipitated into a squabble when Victor A. Wilder, of Warwick, offered the following resolutions relating to the instructing of Mr. Odell and Mr. Bradley at the St. Louis Convention: Whereas, The contingency may arise, in which the Republicans in the State of New York will be forced to abandon their efforts in behalf of the nomination of the Hon. Levi P. Morton for President, who candidacy we heartly indorse. Resolved, That in such an event, we declare the real choice of the messes in the Seventeenth Congressional District to be that foremost ex-penent of protection to American labor and American industries, the Hon. William McKinley, of Chio; that with him as our candidate, the one great issue between the Republican party and its ancient enemy, the Democratic party, will be brought fairly and squarely before the people, and, believing that, in a contest under such conditions, there can be no doubt of the triumph of our party at the polls next Novem-lier, we args upon the delegates chosen to represent this Congressional district at St. Louis the use of all honorable efforts to bring about he nomination of Mr. McKinley.

At least a score of delegates moved that these resolutions be laid upon the imble, but Mr. Wilder was not to be squeiched. He started to harangue the convention, when Mr. Odell interrupted, saying that it would be unwise and impolitic to send the delegates instructed. His suggestion pre-valled, and the convention adjourned, after ndorsing Levi P. Morton's candidacy for

BLAND TAKES IT CALMLY.

Says He is Not Seeking a Nomination and That the Sedalia Indorsement Was Unsolicited.

Lebanon, Mo., April 18 .- "Silver Dick" Seventeenth Congressional DisBland is at home, enjoying a much-needed rest after the exciting scenes at the State Democratic Convention in Sedalia, which indorsed him for the Presidency.

The strong and unequivocal free coinage resolutions incorporated in the financial resolutions incorporated in the mancial plank of the Missouri platform, and the widespread reputation of the State's Presidential candidate as the foremost advocate of the 16 to 1 doctrine, have excited general interest. Mr. Bland's failure to address the State Convention after receiving its indorsement caused considerable disappointment among State politicians, and an expression of some sort on the party's i expression of some sort on the party's cospects and future polley has been eager-awaited since. To-day Mr. Bland broke a silence. He contended that his increment for the Presidency was unsolved.
